Notice regarding Issuance of Integrated Report 2026

SEGA SAMMY HOLDINGS hereby notifies that it has issued the “Integrated Report 2026” for all stakeholders, including shareholders and investors, and have made it available on its website.

Integrated Report 2026 takes a closer look at the key elements of our value creation story, illustrating how the strengths of the Group contribute to the sustainable enhancement of corporate value. It also presents the challenges facing the Group following the second year of the current medium-term plan and our approach to addressing them, as well as our strategies for each business aimed at returning to a growth trajectory under the next medium-term plan and our human resource strategies for continuing to fulfill the Group’s purpose.

We will continue to enhance our information disclosure, including through our integrated report and website, and aim to further increase our corporate value.
